FOR THE RALFIGH BEGISTER Mr. Gales—I request of you the favor to inform those respectable friends who have interested themselves in the success of the "Far mers Magazine," that the patronage proffered is not such as will justify its publication. The best service I can now render them is, to re commend to their notice the " American Far

The following notice was addressed at their own expense, through the public papers of that state, by the board of managers of the Agricultural Society.

TO THE PLANTERS OF S. CAROLINA. The "American Farmer," which is, as ap-ears from its title, devoted principally to bjects relating to agriculture, contains a eat variety of matter, the result of actual nd well digested experiments, embracing the whole range of domestic and rural economy such as cannot fail, if duly observed, to be high ly beneficial to your interests. The great ob ject of this society is, to promote agriculture, and thereby advance the prosperity not of themselves individually, but of their fellowcitizens generally. They believe they cannot more effectually, in this early stage of them organization, promote their object, than by re-commending this paper to your perusal. They therefore take the liberty to recommend the American Farmer as highly worthy of your attention. By order of the Board of Managers,

J. J. CHAPPELL, Vice-President presiding.

Extract from the proceedings of the agricultural Society of Albemarle, Virginia, at their last meeting, May 8, 1820.

"In order more generally to disseminate the agricultual intelligence and improvements made throughout the United States, the Society resolve to present each of its members with the first volume of the American Former. with the first volume of the American Farmer, edited at Baltimore, by John S. Skinner, Esq. "P. MINOR, Sec'y."

All gentlemen who feel an interest in the culation of a Journal devoted to the objects and conducted on the plan here described, are requested to transmit the names of subscriber -but (Fin all cases the money must be remitted efore the paper can be sent. It will, however e returned in any case, where the subscriber on a view of the paper, not being satisfied may think proper to return it to the edite within three weeks.

LEXINGTON:

THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 17. MILITARY PUNISHMENT.

It has been stated, within a few days ty, that a new and barbarous system of punishment has been adopted in that at different points, on the Missouri river. Encroachments of the military upon the civil regulations of a nation, and more especially a Republic, ought to be regarded as more dangerous to the liberties of the people, than the happening of any other political event; because, the very nature of the profession of arms is calculated to inspire despotic feelingsand human beings are seldom backward in exercising all the power that may become subject to their respective situations. Military tyranny is the powerful engine that has destroyed all the Republics which have flourished before our time. To the exercise and prevalence of this spirit and feeling, is to be attributed solely the prostration of the liberties of Greece and Rome. But to bring the subject home :-

It is an universally admitted political axiom, that this government is founde its essential principles are designed promote their happiness and prosperity The commanders of our army are bu servants of the people, and the very sol diery whom they so often wantonly degrade by the infliction of enwarrantable and illegal chastisement, possess as man ers not delegated to them by the laws o their country. It has been but a few months since one of our southern Colo nels was suspended from the service for five years for a criminal abuse of his legitimate authority. He uncerimonious ly caused soldiers to be shot, for the refluted crime of desertion, without the semblance of a trial. Lenient, indeed must have been the court who tried him, or he would have been struck from the rolls of the army and consigned to per petual disgrace. We forbear to say any thing of the assumptions of "a grea military captain," whose distinguished services and martial popularity seem to sanctify all his evil deeds.

The power of efficers to inflict pur shments on the soldiers whom the con mand is well guarded in the rules an articles of war. These, however, ap pear not to influence those upon th Missouri station; because they have daringly taken upon themselves the de cating upon offences, and of unfeeling executing the penalties of their hideou code. Our readers may pause, and asl for the nature of these penalties. It only necessary to mention one. It alon s sufficiently appalling, without going into minute details. For the last twelve months, the lordly military tyrants of Missouri have been in the habit of cro hing the ears of the soldiers at pleasure It is immaterial what the offence, th officers in their wilderness frolics, an outlawed remoteness from the war d partment, appear to sport with the fee ingsand dignity of the soldier withou restraint or notice.

DOMESTIC MANUFACTURES.

It affords us very great pleasure to b enabled to announce the occurrance an event which will promote the prosperity of this quarter of the western country in a very eminent degree. The extensive and finely constructed WOOL-LEN FACTORY, erected here by the David Trimble Messrs. Prentiss', and now the property of Col. JAMES JOHNSON, has been leased Thomas Metcalf, for a series of years, to John Yonno, Esq. & Co. distinguished and wealthy manufacturers from Leeds, in England. Their experience and capacity to carry on this kind of business are well ascertained, and cannot be questioned in any shape whatever. The establishment will be put into operation early in the ensuing year, and will be conducted under the immediate superintendance of the lessees. Encouragement to Home Industry of this description will eventually rescue the different towns from their decaying appearance, and arouse the people from that miserable inertia into which Medison—T. C. Howard, James Stone, and Archibald Woods the pecuniary embarrassments of the Mercor-Thomas P. Moore, G. C. Thompson state have thrown them.

FOR THE GAZETTE THE NEXT GOVERNOR.

From the returns we have received and other information which we have obtained, we have no doubt that either Adair or Logan will be our next governor. This result will surprise our cratic republicans, Buthr and Desha were the opposing candidates. should ourselves be surprised at it, but Every body knows that we have always had in this state two parties-the great one, democratic; the lesser one as decidedly federal; and that the memsessed of the wish to domineer over the state. Hence it is, that they have assumed as many shapes as Proteus.-Sometimes they call themselves by the non-descript name of no-party-men. when they never fail to vote for federalists and their measures in opposition to democrats, at the same time crying awhich, we are assured, cash will be paid loud against all party; so that it has be come a by-word with many, that the them known. Dr. Caldwell who devote serve the interest of the public by giv- democrats were for peace this non-deswas resolved on, then they said the measure was impolitic or unjust; and since it has been a successful one, they claim a full share of all its honors and glories. Sometimes they oppose the right of instruction, and at other times they say the voice of the majority should govern. But we have not time to go through all the shapes which our prominent no-party-men, alias federalists, have assumed to acquire power; we have therefore touched but upon a few outlines, which are, however, enough for our present washing and candles, from 33 to 83 50 purpose; and that is to shew, that federalism by its steady march after power, has at length succeeded in giving us a governor, when, if the voice of the people could have been heard, we should have had a democratic one. We desire the reader to carry with him a few more facts connected with this subject. At one time Adair was the hero who accomplished the revolution; at another time he was the conquerer of Canada, and then the splendid victor of the plains of Orleans. Some of his eulogists, appearing indeed to forget, that either Washington, Harrison, Shelby, Johnson or Jackson had any band in either of those events! And then, Logan was another Mansfield on the bench, and one of the firmest repubicans and sages of the age!

Still, however, all these means would not have elected either Adair or Logan, but for the arts of some POLITICAL JUG. creas-who have heretofore stood high in the confidence of the people-many of whom were the first to mvite Burlen to offer Finself as a candidate, and who promised him their warm and united support. Mr. Brougham .- I concur entirely with the noble Lord as to the necessity of further delay-but no longer delay, I do assure the House, either has or shall take place than is absolutely required for such important arrangements. I feel the great anxiety that prevails on the subject, and the great delay in the furtherance of the public business-but no plame is imputable to either of the parties. It has been the anxious wish of both to expedite the busines, and beyond Monday I see no circumstances that can occur in the ordinary course of human affairs to prevent its being ended. I have also to add my hope to that so properly expressed by the noble Lord, that the House will keep themselves exactly in that state in which they separated on the first night of the adjournment.

This announcement met with a most hearty reception from the members; the prevailing opinion being, that a private accommodation, sparing the feelings of both the illustrious Personages concerned, will take place. It is most gratifying to observe the dignified and udicious line of conduct which the whole House pursued on this trying occasion-Party has been forgotten. #### POETRY.

MOON LIGHT.

There is a bland and pensive hour, Endearing, soothing is its power,
'Tis when the sun Mas shed his fading, ling ring rays, And when the doubtful fight betrays That day is done.

'Tis when Cynthia's rising beam,
Sheds on lake or rippling stream
Her silver gleams,
When some pale lover, wand'ring far,
Seeks the bright Hesperian Star,
In fancy's dream.

'Tis when the raised romentic mind, To peace, to love, to heaven resigned, Loves to repair To some wild fragrant myrtle cove, And there in contemplation rove Released from care.

Tis when the fairy orb, serene, Divinely blends each rural scene Of hill and dale; When by the heav'nly visioned light, From perfam'd spray, the bird of night Descants his tale.

Tis when the grief-worn pilgrim hies To commune with his kindred skies, To seek relief, In pious prayer—and fancy tells, That there the form regretted dwells, Heleas'd from grief.

'Tis when the sentient wounded heart, Pierced by slander's keenest dart, O'erwhelmed with woes, Flies from the busy haunts of men, Eager t'escape their vulgar ken, And seeks repose.

"Tis that blest hour when lovers stray, To taste those joys that shun the day, Congenial hour, When timid maids their lovers bless; When by this light they first confess Love's gentle power.

'Tis when the poet, Passion's child, In fancy's world now wanders wild With soul on fire,
The strain of epic praise prolongs,
Or tunes to melancholy songs His pensive lyre.

Tis when, as fabled poets say, The woodland fairnes, sylph or fay,
Weave their light dance, And revel all the livelong night Of morning's glance.

'Tis when, as superstition says, The soul departed oft betrays
Some secret crime, Holds converse with its mutual heart Or leaves Elysium to impart Some truth sublime.

Oh, still I love thy tranquil light, Nor noontide sun, nor morning bright,
With thee compare, For e'en when sorrow swells my breast, Thy beams can sooth my soul to rest, Sweet orb! most fair. PHILPOT

Turkey Red, Yellow, & Nankeen Dying.

THE Subscriber proposes to dye the above colors, and if a sufficient supply of Kentucky raised madder can be procured will warrant the red to be of superior britancy and durability, to any that has yet been imported to the western country, which many persons can testify who have purchased cotton varn of that color, at my factory, about 12 years since. Although this colour has gone out of use for some years, yet it may be advantageously revived by filling it on blue warp, for chambreys, and is perhaps, the most beautiful specimen of domestic manufacture. The tiful specimen of domestic manufacture. The yellow will be beautiful, of various shades, from a pale to a rich gold color. And the Nankeens are warranted to be so far superior to the East India nankeen color, as to be indistructible, while a fibre of the cloth is remaining. Cloths died in this way, are more durable than when dyed of the nankeen color made with coperas, as the keen particles of iron in coperas, must cut the fibnes of the cloth, and produce what is commonly, called

"a rotten color,"
Various other colors will be dyed as the buof a public already sufficiently convinced of the propriety of making every thing at home.

Articles left to be dyed, will be punctually attended to.
